“Master of Quotes”

WORDS THAT TEACH, TOUCH & CHALLENGE

“I can’t remember when I’ve received 100% positive comments from any company sponsored event. What you accomplished is beyond the reach of your peers. Your passion for your mission, your love for people, and your commitment to excellence is a combination that I’ve not experienced in my 30 years in the business world. Thanks to you, we at Protective Life have a renewed sense of purpose and a developing vision on what it takes to become effective leaders.” - Dave Keyes, Protective Life Corporation

“Your strategies helped our management team improve employee satisfaction during a very difficult period. In the six months following your presentation, employee satisfaction improved by 25%.” – Frank Baggett, Prudential Insurance

“Your message was one of the most talked about presentations we have heard in years. Throughout your message, which you tailored to focus on the topics of professionalism and integrity, you demonstrated a unique ability to bring enthusiasm, information, and passion together in a very positive learning experience. Your impact on our agents will carry on well beyond their professional lives.” – Dan Krueger, Farmers Insurance

“There are several unique characteristics that make your work so special...An incredible ability to connect with people on a personal level, a sincere passion and interest in helping people grow, and the ability to positively impact everyone with several memorable quotes to call upon in times of reflection in our daily lives. I would recommend your services to anyone wishing to expand their capabilities for achieving true success and happiness.” – Joel Goode, Gilead Sciences

.....

“I read your books every other day and have never had a better outlook on my career. I am amazed at the number of sales that have landed in my lap because of the seemingly small changes that I have made by reading, thinking, and repeating your words to people. You were so real and because of you I will never look back.” – Dave Fliflet, Aflac
