

DARE TO GROW

How To Build Relationships That Stand The Tests of Time & Change

Why settle for success? In his newest keynote presentation, Byrd Baggett shares insights and strategies that will help individuals, teams, and businesses reach the richly rewarding Season of Significance. Following are some of the many takeaways:

- Truth - The Taproot of Relationships - Byrd shares the five disciplines of truth that are essential to growing individuals and teams to the Season of Significance. These would have saved Enron!
- Roots of Relationships – Discover the four core values essential to developing and sustaining rewarding personal and professional relationships. Deeper roots make stronger teams.
- Four Natural Laws of Life – Learn how to leverage these life-changing principles to grow to the Season of Significance.
- Most Fulfilling Purpose – This is the sap that gives meaning to life and life to teams. It's what makes Southwest Airlines great.
- The Slight Edge – Discover the transformational power of discipline. Byrd shares the Rule of Ten™, five simple acts of daily discipline that will transform one's life, both personally and professionally. This is the bark of successful teams.
- Ripeness Test – Eleven questions that help individuals, teams, and businesses discover whether they're green and growing or ripe and rotting.
