Dear Byrd:

Byrd Baggett shared his thoughts and wisdom with our group over a two day period. His inspiration and message was certainly an "eye opener" for many of us. His ability to reach into an individual's heart and mind, with simplistic messages based on life experiences and common sense was most appreciated. His presentation style is most effective and I would recommend him for any organization, of any size. He is well worth the time and effort and, in today's world---his message cuts right to the core of our value system: to achieve one's desires, you need to respect and appreciate others. I can truthfully say, you will love Byrd Baggett.

Sincerely,

Dear Byrd,

Your presentation was the highest rated session our Annual conference has had in the last 10 years. Below are just a few of the high praise we had from our survey responses:

Bring Byrd back again

Byrd Baggett was FABULOUS! I would see him 10 more times!

Byrd Baggett was amazing!

Byrd was excellent. probably the best motivational speaker I have ever heard. I think we should have more motivational stuff at our meetings

Byrd Baggett was not only inspirational, he was easy to listen to using everyday examples and reiterating information so that it could be remembered. I would recommend his return to WAHU conference!

With our current state of healthcare it was really refreshing to have Byrd come in and inspire us after hearing so much gloom and doom.

Once again, thank you for taking the time to join us in the Wisconsin Dells.

Sincerely,

Megan Purtel

To Whom It May Concern:

A few months ago I had the great pleasure of finally meeting Mr. Byrd Baggett in person. Mr. Baggett had been recommended to me as a speaker for our annual conference. After some preliminary email correspondence, we met via telephone. After chatting at length, I sensed that he was a caring, sincere and thoughtful individual. I thought, "If these qualities come across over the phone, what must he be like in person?"

I ended up hiring Mr. Baggett to speak at our conference. The evening before the event he came to our welcome reception and began to assess the situation – he wanted to know as much as possible about our group. That evening told me even more about the man who is Byrd Baggett. It was clear that he wanted an intimate knowledge of the audience and his surroundings in order to deliver the best presentation possible.

The following morning Mr. Baggett spoke for ninety minutes, but the time seemed to pass much quicker. His message was everything I had hoped for – he was inspirational, motivational and, most importantly, he was able to connect with the audience. For the remainder of the conference, Byrd Baggett was the main topic of conversation. His message lifted people up and gave them hope.

In the days and weeks following the conference, we received a many comments stating it was our best conference ever. Byrd Baggett was a large part of that success. I recommend that other groups give him a try.

Respectfully submitted,

Jim Fish

Re: ACIG Safety/Claims Workshop

Dear Byrd:

I would like to thank you for the fantastic job you did in kicking off our meeting on a very positive note. I thoroughly enjoyed your presentation, True Growth: A New Philosophy of Leadership. It was a very inspirational message and contained many helpful ideas on improving one's leadership skills.

I have listed some of the comments from our attendees below:

“Very meaningful and insightful. A truly life-changing presentation.”

“Byrd presented very well - probably the best presenter I have ever experienced!”

“I have seen several motivational speakers; very good presenter and content. Captivating and kept attention of crowd. Had very good messages.”

Thanks again for helping to make our meeting a success, and for providing our attendees with such a powerful and relevant message. I greatly appreciate your professionalism and enthusiasm, as it truly makes for a meaningful experience.

I am proud to call you my friend.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Baggett:

I want to thank you for taking the time to speak to us at the Winter Sales Conference in Little Rock. Your presentation was both motivational and inspirational. Everyone was "glued" to their seat for the two hours you spent with us and the life lessons and professional values that came from your presentation are invaluable.

This seminar provided life changing and thought provoking information that when put into practice will make a phenomenal difference in everyone's life. Listening to your philosophy on leadership gave everyone the chance to do a little self reflection and learn how we can all grow as individuals and as effective leaders

Byrd, you present in such a way that the listeners are engaged in what you are saying and your attitude is contagious. You brought attention to many great principles, values and quotes that are great for us to live and work by. Our Sales Representatives deal with customers one-on-one everyday and these principles will help them progress with greater passion and self-satisfaction.

Thanks again Byrd for speaking to us and especially for daring us all to grow.

Sincerely,
